THE PEOPLE'S PARTY.

The Only Hope of Silver Lies in Its Success.

Hon. Thomas Wren, one of the Presidential electors of the Free Coinage ticket in reply to an invitation to be present at the mass meeting in Virginia City to-night sent the following:

EUREKA, Nev., July 31, 1892.

Clayton Belknap, C. E. Mack, Lewis P. Wardle, E. B. Harris, George W. Hatch, S. Hass, J. B. Mallon, J. R. Douglas, D. M. Ryan, William Maher, E. S. Werrin, Chris Hill, J. B. Dazet and C. C. Pendergast: Gentlemen—In reply to your invitation requesting me to be present at the mass meeting of the Silver party of Nevada, to be held at Virginia City, on August 4, 1892, to welcome General James B. Weaver, the nominee of the People's party, for the Presidency, to Nevada, I regret exceedingly to say that owing to the pressure of legal business that cannot be postponed, I shall be unable to attend.

Regarding General Weaver as I do, as one of the most earnest and most thoroughly honest and sincere champions of the people, and of free coinage, I trust and believe that there will be a grand demonstration at your meeting in honor of the man and the cause he represents.

There can be no question that the only hope for silver lies in the success of the People's party. The present struggle for free coinage upon the part of the people of the Silver States and Territories is a struggle for existence. The success of the People's party means a revival of prosperity, good wages, and steady employment throughout all the Silver States and Territories. The success of either the Democratic or Republican party means the repeal of all laws favoring silver. It means not only the permanent demonetization of silver, but also the destruction of the market for silver, except for use in the arts. That is precisely what the platforms of the Republican and Democratic parties framed by the same cunning brains and hands, mean and nothing more nor less.

The so-called Monetary Conference, soon to be held, is a snare originated to deceive and defraud.

In view of the great crisis that is upon us, involving as it does our dearest rights, we should present a solid, united front in their defense in the Senate of the United States, in the House of Representatives, in Legislature, and at the polls in November next; let unanimity be our watchword. Put no man on guard in Congress or in any public office who is not fully qualified, unreservedly above party and every minor consideration in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

Your truly,

THOS. WREN.

Thaxter's Opinion.

The work of the Grand Jury is unsatisfactory to George Thaxter. He said yesterday to an APPEAL reporter:

"I think the investigation made by the Grand Jury was too limited and in no way satisfactory to the taxpayers. There were a number of charges made which they seem to have ignored, and did not investigate as they should. I told some of them myself to do everything in their power to get at the bottom of all corruption. It is quite evident they did not do so, and the work accomplished is of little importance. I do not understand why they called for a discharge, and it looks very much as if they wanted to get away from an unpleasant duty."

The Tribune publisher and all the employees of the office are willing to make affidavit that not a single name appearing in the transcript furnished monthly during the year 1891-2 by County Clerk Doane of the claims allowed by the Board of Commissioners was ever omitted in the Tribune's printed list.—Tribune.

Now the taxpayers would like to know what Mr. Doane has to say in regard to the omissions of Mr. Bray's claims in the monthly report. About time they were getting on to the combination and finding who is to blame for such a slack condition of affairs in the County Clerk's office.
